

Walking Tours

DISCOVER COLONIAL NEWPORT

Discover the remarkable story of Newport and its central role in American history on a walk through the Historic Hill neighborhood. This tour reveals who and what made Newport notable.

10:30am DAILY JUNE, JULY, AUGUST & SEPTEMBER
Saturdays only in April, May, October & November

RUM AND REVOLUTION

Hear stories of taverns, distillers, rum runners and more. This interactive tour explores the changing role of alcohol and its importance throughout Newport's 300 year history.

11:30am SATURDAY JUNE 6 JULY 4 AUGUST 1

OLD HOUSE ABCS

Learn the ABCs of architecture in this exquisitely preserved city. Begin inside the 1699 Friends Meeting House and end amid the Victorian splendor of lower Bellevue Avenue.

11:30am SATURDAY JUNE 13 JULY 11 AUGUST 8 & 29

NEWPORT'S BURIED HISTORY

Listen to stories about Newport's people of color, enslaved and free. Visit the Wanton-Lyman-Hazard House and the colonial African burying ground.

11:30am SATURDAY JUNE 20 JULY 18 AUGUST 15

TASTES OF THE WORKING WATERFRONT

Taste, touch and smell your way through history while learning about the sailors, merchants and immigrants who lived and worked along Lower Thames. NOTE: This tour departs from the NRF Museum Store at 415 Thames Street.

11:30am SATURDAY JUNE 27 JULY 25 AUG 22 SEP 5

HOLIDAY LANTERN TOUR

Celebrate the authentic history of winter holiday traditions on a lantern-lit stroll through Newport's streets, including a visit inside the Wanton-Lyman-Hazard House.

5:00pm FRIDAY NOVEMBER 13 through DECEMBER 18

Purchase tickets at the tour departure point, the Museum & Shop at Brick Market. Tours last approximately 75 minutes. For details, visit www.newporthistorytours.org or call 401.841.8770.

$12 ($5 ages 12 & under)

HISTORIC SITE TOURS

COLONY HOUSE 1739

RI government building and courthouse and backdrop to many historic events. First floor by donation; guided tours offered.

WANTON-LYMAN-HAZARD HOUSE c1697

View Newport's oldest house museum.

GREAT FRIENDS MEETING HOUSE 1699

Built for the Society of Friends, this is the oldest house of worship in Newport.

11:00am to 2:30pm Thu, Fri & Sat in JUNE, JULY & AUGUST

Saturdays only in September and October

Historic site tour tickets may be purchased at the Colony House or the Museum & Shop at Brick Market on Washington Square.

$5 ($3 ages 12 & under) – tour all three for $12

MUSEUMS & MUSEUM STORES

MUSEUM & SHOP AT BRICK MARKET

Exhibits by the Newport Historical Society offer 400 years of Newport History; admission by donation.

127 Thames Street, Washington Square 401.841.8770

open at 10:00am DAILY APRIL through DECEMBER

Purchase walking tour tickets here.

NRF MUSEUM STORE

Offering items inspired by the life and collections of heiress, preservationist and collector Doris Duke.

415 Thames Street 401.324.6111

open at 11:00am DAILY APRIL through DECEMBER

WHITEHORNE MUSEUM

A Federal-period mansion featuring Doris Duke's collection of 18th-century Newport furniture. For more information or to buy tickets online, visit newportrestoration.org.

416 Thames Street 401.847.2448

open 11:00am to 3:00pm DAILY (EXCEPT FOR TUES & WED)
MAY through OCTOBER $6 (Free ages 12 and under).

Guided tours offered at 10:30am and 3:00pm for $12.

Tours are weather permitting and subject to change

www.NewportHistoryTours.org
401.841.8770

