

Keeping History Above Water: Looking Back, Moving Forward

All sessions will take place at Bazarsky Lecutre Hall, 36 Ochre Point Ave,
Newport , RI 02840

Schedule and sessions subject to change*

Sessions will be eligible for credits with the American Institute of Architects Continuing Education System (AIA CES). Certificates of attendance will be provided to attendees seeking credits, and completion of the program will be reported to the AIA CES for AIA members. The accreditation process is generously provided by the Historic Preservation Education Foundation.

Wednesday, October 21 Sessions Start in the Afternoon

Elevation as Craft - Why Climate Adaptation Demands a New Preservation Trade	Christopher Bailow
Timber Frames: Movable, Resilient, Sustainable, Beautiful	Arron Sturgis and Rick Geddes
Building Resilient Solutions: Reducing Disaster Anxiety Through Action	Paige Pollard and Kerry Shackelford

Thursday, October 22 Sessions begin in the morning

Keeping History Above Water: Hindsight, Insight, and Foresight	Marty Hylton III (Moderator), Kayla Halberg, Rodney Rowland, Jen Wellock
Newport Restoration Foundation Portfolio Plan	Margaret Back and Union Studio
Living Documentation for Coastal Heritage at Risk	Heather Veneziano
Future of Insurability	Representative Lauren Carson (Moderator), InnSure
Historic Corridor Resilience Planning and Adaptation	Arnold N. Robinson, Caitlin Greeley, Alex Maxwell, Beth Kirmmse

Friday, October 23

Resilient Historic Places: Lessons from the Travelers Across America Initiative	National Trust for Historic Preservation
A Landscape in Bloom: Designing for the future of the Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial	Jacob Torkelson
Mapping the Drivers of Heritage Recovery: Insights and Methods from Montpelier and Marshall	Ana Carolina da Roza Ferreira
Stone Living Lab: Nature-Based Approaches to Coastal Resilience	Katie Dafforn and Joe Christo
No Place to Hide, Lighthouses on the Front Lines	Jon Buono and Bob Trapani
The Ship that Wrecked Twice! Using Marine Archaeology to Communicate About Our Changing Coasts	Valerie Perini and David Robinson